

SeniorCareAccess.com (SCA) is a unique, first-of-its-kind, online portal offering older Canadian adults and their families a one-stop-shop for their transitioning lifestyle. SeniorCareAccess.com offers to connect 3 major components which influence older adults and their families as they age.

SENIORS' HOUSING DATABASE

SCA SENIORS' CONSULTING

SENIORS' RESOURCE DIRECTORY

SeniorCareAccess.com is a Canada-wide, seniors' housing database, consulting service and seniors' resource directory offering unique solutions by delivering results in both UNBIASED (membership access) and SPONSORED (free access) platforms. Whether you are in need of access to housing data, are looking to market your services, are an adult child caring for a parent or are a retirement residence, SeniorCareAccess.com connects it all. Through our varied and diverse platforms, SeniorCareAccess.com aims to offer dozens of solutions focused on Older Adults and Life Transitions. Services offered include but are not limited to:

- access to housing solutions
- home health care
- connecting with a senior-friendly Accredited Senior Agent™ REALTOR®
- retrofitting your home
- locating support groups
- aging in place
- estate planning, financial preservation, executor assistance (CEA)
- retirement residence transition
- data research
- dementia therapy

Our mission is to assist families in answering, 'What do we do now?' and 'Who can help us?'

Seniors' Housing Database

SeniorCareAccess.com delivers a unique user experience by offering 2 distinct platforms of comprehensive senior housing solutions.

SeniorCareAccess.com has amassed Canada's most extensive membership accessible database of senior housing options. Unlike directories, our database offers to identify over 350 data fields, allowing access to extensive information on over 5,500 senior housing options, such as: independent senior living, retirement communities and long-term care. Available unsponsored data can include: vacancies, amenities, levels of care, pricing and contact information, all accessible through multi-level search functions.

SeniorCareAccess.com provides free access to our retirement community directory, offering users access to available sponsored data. This information is geared towards the consumer who is interested in discovering options in advance of contacting a residence or booking a tour. This platform allows the user to research specific details, photos and social media and to experience the industry's first fully immersive, high-definition, SCA 3D Virtual Tour* - effectively offering you a tour in the comfort of your own home!

*Available only with participating residences.

SCA Seniors' Consulting

SCA Seniors' Consulting is a person-centred consulting program providing seniors and their families with guidance and assistance in identifying and managing resources. This is the starting point for many families who are in need of having their initial questions answered, 'What do we do now?' and 'Who can help us?'. SCA Seniors' Consultants assist seniors and their families to identify available solutions to meet their needs and goals. Consultants can offer a multitude of services such as: lifestyle planning, best choice retirement residence placement, mediation, care planning, real estate, estate planning, financial preservation and executor assistance.

The initial one hour consultation is at no charge; however a fee will apply for the creation of a 'plan of action' and the implementation of that plan.

Seniors' Resource Directory

The Seniors' Resource Directory is designed for direct interaction of senior service providers, interested professionals and consumers.

SeniorCareAccess.com is building a network of seniors' resources who specialize in offering services benefiting older adults. Access to this section of the site is free for all users and is searchable by province, city and service category.

Other benefits of the site include an article database as well as an online store with valuable publications for all visitors.
